product Nebula
standout An outdoor lighting system by the Skidmore, Owings & Merrill associate director includes full-height, bollard, and path light options in the brand's proprietary Neri gray, pure white, jet black, moss green, or aluminum finishes. neri.biz product Marina standout Flexible, supportive Sunbrella straps applied to a powder-coated aluminum frame give the lounge chair's seat loft, while comfy yacht-cord-wrapped armrests nod to nautical Miami. pavilion-furniture.com product Element

standout The architect and creative director's modular, furniture-inspired stainless-steel outdoor kitchen comes in a colorful array of durable powder-coats, adding a welcome dose of color. brownjordanoutdoorkitchens.com product Lily

standout A frog's perch inspired this sweet garden table, its delicate silhouette crafted in tough-enough stainless steel and with top powder-coated one of nine available spunky hues. tomfaulkner.co.uk
